From the Head of Primary Campus

Over the past 5 weeks both staff and students have been prioritising establishing positive relationships with both their peers and teachers. We are very proud of our new Reception students who have become increasingly confident in adopting a daily school schedule. The importance of routine, structure and consistency, in all facets of the school day, are key contributors to developing a successful learning environment, where all children can continue to develop personal confidence in both their learning and wellbeing.

CROSS CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

The opportunity for students on the Primary Campus to be involved in cooking classes on the Secondary Campus, has been a highlight for students in Year 5 B/C. Each of the Year 5 classes will participate in a 3-week cooking schedule and enjoy the opportunity to experiment with their culinary skills!

Global AI achievement for Mount Carmel College

JENNY BRINKWORTH

Mount Carmel College's Mary MacKillop Centre (for students with an intellectual disability) has been recognised internationally for a unique climate change project that connected the centre with schools in Austria and Singapore.

The project won a Gold Award at the international 17th Asia-Europe Foundation (ASEF) ClassNet Conference 2024.

The Climate Alliance project emerged from Inclusion teacher Ms Hang Ngo's participation in the ASEF ClassNet program which involved eight months of online learning, international collaborating, innovative teaching and on-site reporting.

The implementation of the project for the Mount Carmel unit focused on air quality and asthma – topics that directly affect several students.

Over four weeks students created personal stories, songs and digital postcards exploring how climate change impacts their daily lives. AI tools were used to help students express themselves in new and creative ways.

"Hunter and Quan, for example, wrote two thoughtful songs about climate change's effects on breathing," said Ms Ngo.

"Max used AI tools to transform his powerful message 'Go Away Asthma' into an impactful multimedia presentation. Hannah worked with an AI-generated dog named Bolt to share her story through a creative postcard format."

As international partners, students from International High School Herzogberg (Austria) and St Andrew's Secondary School (Singapore) responded enthusiastically to Mount Carmel students' works through their shared platform.

Ms Hang Ngo said this global connection helped students understand how climate change affects different parts of the world while giving them confidence in sharing their own experiences.

"What truly stands out is how this project allowed our MacKillop students to overcome their usual literacy challenges," she said.

"Using AI tools like ChatGPT, Magic School AI (for image generator and writing support), Suno (for music creation), and Canva (for artwork), they found new ways to express their thoughts and participate in global discussions about important issues."

The teaching resources developed have been selected as exemplars by the Asia-Europe Foundation and will be shared with schools worldwide. "This achievement reflects our school's leadership support for using technology in empowering education and our Centre's commitment to innovative, inclusive education," Ms Ngo said.

"More importantly, it shows what our students can achieve when given the right tools and support to express themselves.

"I'm incredibly proud of our students' work and growth throughout this project.

"They've shown that everyone's voice matters in the global conversation about climate change, regardless of their learning challenges."

AI in use at Mount Carmel College: There is a lovely article in the February edition of the Southern Cross newspaper about the work of our teacher Dr Hang Ngo in using AI with our Mary MacKillop Centre students. The project on climate change won a Gold Award at an international conference.

Year 3 have made a great start to the 2025 school year. We have enjoyed week 1-2 as establishments weeks, getting to know our new class environment, routines and expectations. We have made written class agreements, acknowledgements of country and goals for the 2025 school year. During our establishment weeks we have behaviours and dispositions that help us be ready to learn, strategies for dealing with difficult tasks and cooperative teamwork. Year 3 are working towards building their work focus skills and cooperative behaviours. 3H week 2 we celebrated Lunar New Year by learning about the customs and making paper twirl snakes for Year of the Snake 2025. We learnt that a snake traits are: wisdom, knowledge, intelligence, intuition, and creativity.

In the first few weeks of the year in 3S, we have been busy thinking about our goals for 2025. With excitement and determination, each student wrote down their aspirations for the year ahead. From improving reading skills to mastering maths, and even exploring new hobbies, our Year 3s are ready to take on the challenges of the year. We can't wait to see all the amazing things our Year 3 students will achieve in 2025!

SA Swimming Championships

Keeley Koznedev and Zoe Gibbens from Year 8 showed their dedication and talent at the School Sport SA Swimming Championship, with some fantastic results and personal bests achieved! Zoe had an exceptional day in the pool, securing multiple top three finishes.

She placed 3rd overall in the butterfly (32.40s), 4th in the backstroke (37.48s), a commendable 2nd in the breaststroke (41.92s), and another 3rd in the freestyle (29.88s). Even more impressive, Zoe achieved personal bests in both the freestyle and butterfly events! Well done, Zoe!

Keeley also had a successful day, achieving personal best times in all her races. She placed 3rd in her freestyle heat, 6th in her breaststroke heat, and 4th in her butterfly heat. Keeley's hard work and improvement are truly commendable.

Congratulations to both students on their amazing achievements in the pool!

Finally, a bit of interesting swimming history that was sent through! Did you know that the boys 15yrs and under breaststroke record, set by D. Pregarz from Mount Carmel in 1994, remains unbroken to this day? His time of 32.11s is significantly faster than the standard time of 37s. It's a testament to his incredible talent and a challenging record for future swimmers to aim for at the College!

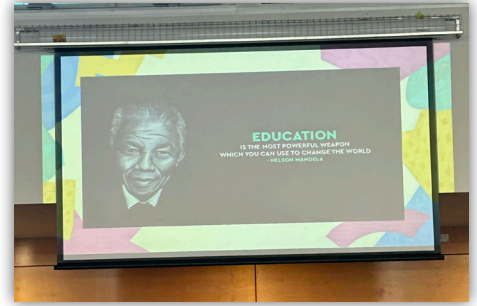

Thank you to the families of both Keeley and Zoe for sending in their results and the interesting swimming history involving a past Mount Carmel College student.
